GAME OVERVIEW

- Calgary has an all-time 75-120-3 regular-season record against Edmonton, including a 32-66-1 mark on the road.
- Calgary is coming off a 31-23 home win over Winnipeg on Aug. 8.
- The Eskimos are coming off a 28-21 road loss in Hamilton on Aug. 8.
- Calgary was 6-3 on the road in 2008 and is 1-1 this season. Edmonton was 7-2 at home in 2008 and is 2-1 at Commonwealth this season.
- The Stamps had a 1-2 record against Edmonton in 2008 — losing 34-31 in Edmonton on July 3, losing 37-16 at home on Labour Day (Sept. 1) and winning 38-33 in Edmonton on Sept. 5.
- Stamps QB Henry Burris needs 239 passing yards to surpass Doug Flutie's club record of 20,551 career passing yards.

- The Stamps are 6-4 in their last 10 games against Edmonton.
- Calgary is 4-6 in its last 10 road games against Edmonton.
- Calgary has scored the most points in the league (203) and Edmonton has allowed the second most points (189).
- Calgary RB Joffrey Reynolds is tied for the CFL lead with seven majors.
- The Stamps are third in the CFL with a plus-7 turnover ratio and Edmonton is last in the league at minus-11.
- Edmonton has the league's No. 2 pass offence and Calgary is second in pass defence.
- This is the fifth consecutive season the Stamps have started 3-3.
- Stamps DE Odell Willis leads the CFL with six sacks.

STAMPEDERS STORYLINES

STAMPS TRYING TO GO OVER .500

After beating the Winnipeg Blue Bombers on Aug. 8, the Stamps found themselves with a 3-3 record for the fifth year in a row. The Stamps won their seventh game of 2008 to go over .500 but they lost the seventh game in each of the three previous seasons. The Stamps lost two of three games to the Eskis last season.

NUCLEUS INTACT

The Stamps have 37 players back from the 46 men who were on the 2008 Grey Cup roster. The only departures are: LB JoJuan Armour, DL Eddie Freeman, DL Howard Hodges, DL Charleston Hughes, DL Pat MacDonald, LB Saleem Rasheed, LB Neil Ternovatsky, OL Antonio Hall and QB Will Proctor. In addition, all 12 Grey Cup offensive starters are back with the club, as are six defensive starters.

NO. 1 CLOSING ON NO. 1

With a decent game this week against the Eskimos, Henry Burris will become the Stamps' all-time leading passer in terms of yardage. Burris needs 239 passing yards to move past Doug Flutie into top spot. In fact, Burris is quickly closing on Flutie in most major franchise passing categories. At his current pace, he will become the all-time leader in passing yards, touchdown passes, pass attempts and completions this summer. Here's a look at how Burris fits into the club's leaderboards:

Career passing yards

20,551	Doug Flutie	1992-1995
20,313	Henry Burris	1997-1999, 2005-present

HENRY BURRIS vs THE ESKIMOS

Burris has enjoyed decent regular-season success against the Eskimos, posting a career QB rating of 87.8 in 19 games and throwing for 4,508 yards, 30 touchdowns and completing 56.8 per cent of his passes. Here's how he has fared against every CFL team:

OPPONENT	GP	ATT	COM	PCT	YDS	TD	INT	RAT

BURRIS BUILDING ON 2008

Stamps quarterback Henry Burris had a career year in 2008 and was named the West Division nominee for Most Outstanding Player before he was the Grey Cup MVP.

Under his direction, the Stamps led the CFL with a 13-5 record and won two playoff games, including the Grey Cup over Montreal. Burris was particularly good when the games mattered most. He had a 10-3 record (including post-season) against teams with a winning record.

Here are Burris' career highs established in 2008 (previous personal best also noted):

	2008	Previous
QB rating	103.8	102.0 (2007)
Completion percentage	64.5	60.9 (2005)
Touchdown passes	39	34 (2007)
Passing yards	5,094	4,647 (2000)
TD:INT ratio	2.8:1	2.4:1 (2007)
Completions	381	322 (2004)
Attempts	591	576 (2000)

Burris also led all CFL quarterbacks with 595 rushing yards (career high is 623, in 2007), to go with a career-high 8.6 yards per carry and three touchdowns.

ALL HE DOES IS THROW TOUCHDOWNS

Since Burris rejoined the Stamps in 2005, he has thrown more touchdown passes than any CFL quarterback.

131 . . . AND COUNTING

Burris threw his 100th touchdown as a member of the Stampeders in Week 11 last season against Edmonton. Ryan Thelwell was on the receiving end of the three-yard touchdown. Burris' Calgary total now stands at 131 and he also threw 54 touchdown passes with the Saskatchewan Roughriders in 2000, 2003 and 2004. Here's a list of who caught Burris' 131 Stamps majors:

HUFF THE VET

In his second year as head coach/GM of the Stamps, John Hufnagel owns the second-longest active tenure of any head coach in the CFL. Huff was hired on Dec. 3, 2007. Only Wally Buono of the BC Lions has been with his team longer. Here is the list, in order of service time:

COACH, TEAM	DATE OF HIRING
Wally Buono, BC Lions	Jan. 14, 2003
John Hufnagel, Calgary Stampeders	Dec. 3, 2007
Marc Trestman, Montreal Alouettes	Dec. 18, 2007
Ken Miller, Saskatchewan Roughriders	Feb. 6, 2008
Marcel Bellefeuille, Hamilton Tiger-Cats	Oct. 27, 2008*
Mike Kelly, Winnipeg Blue Bombers	Dec. 2, 2008
Richie Hall, Edmonton Eskimos	Dec. 17, 2008
Bart Andrus, Toronto Argonauts	Jan. 16, 2009

* Named interim head coach on Sept. 8, 2008

SIX NEW STARTERS ON DEFENCE

While the Stamps enjoy some continuity from their 2008 championship season, many changes have been made to the starting defence. In fact, there are six first-year CFLers among the starting dozen, while Mike Labinjo is in his first season at defensive tackle after playing defensive end in 2008, and second-year safety Milt Collins started just two games as a rookie last season. The six newcomers are MLB Tray Blackmon, DE Odell Willis, DE Malik Jackson, HB Davanzo Tate, HB Ronnie Amadi and DT Tom Johnson.

STAMPS YOUNG ON DEFENCE

Only the Hamilton Tiger-Cats have a younger starting defence than Calgary's dominant dozen. Led by six first-year players, the Stamps' average age is 25.7 years. Tray Blackmon is the youngest at 23 (Oct. 20, 1985), while Dwaine Carpenter is the oldest at 32 (Nov. 4, 1976). Here's how all CFL teams compare (prior to Week 5):

TEAM	AVG AGE
Hamilton	25.5
Calgary	25.7
Edmonton	27.6
Montreal	28.2
BC	28.3
Winnipeg	28.3
Saskatchewan	28.3
Toronto	28.8

STOPPING THE OPPOSITION

The Stamps' solid defensive play is reflected in their yards allowed per play. Only Toronto and Montreal rank ahead of Calgary's 4.13-yards-per-play mark. Here's the list of all CFL teams:

TEAM	PLAYS	YARDS	AVG
Toronto	472	1,832	3.88
Montreal	431	1,751	4.06
Calgary	479	1,977	4.13
Winnipeg	508	2,148	4.23
Saskatchewan	502	2,164	4.31
BC	490	2,126	4.34
Edmonton	484	2,150	4.44
Hamilton	469	2,321	4.95

SHUTTING DOWN THE PASS

In 2008, the Stamps defence excelled at stopping the run. This season, they rank No. 1 in the CFL in most major pass defence categories. Here's how they measure up:

Defensive stat category	Total	Rank
Passing yards per game	220	1
Passing TDs	10	T1
Average gain per pass	6.9	1
Opponents' completion percentage	57.8	1
Interceptions	8	T3
Sacks	15	5

TERRIFIC TWO-GAME TOTAL

The Stampeders defence allowed a total of just 19 points in Week 3 and 4 wins over Toronto and BC. That is the Stamps' lowest two-game total of points allowed since 2001. It is just the second time in 13 seasons Calgary has yielded fewer than 20 points over a two-game stretch.

Here are all instances of the Stampeders keeping the opponents under 20 total points over two games in the past 30 years:

CLUTCH CANADIANS

Few receivers in the CFL make more of their opportunities than Canadian receivers Ryan Thelwell and Teyo Johnson, who have made a tremendous impact with limited touches. Thelwell has scored or gained a first down on a remarkable 78.4 per cent of his touches over the past two seasons, while Johnson has done so on 70 per cent. Here is a detailed look at the duo's work over the past two seasons:

MR. CONSISTENCY

Lewis set a Stamps record on Oct. 18, 2008 with receptions in his 86th consecutive game. Lewis caught three passes against the Saskatchewan Roughriders in his CFL debut (on June 20, 2004) and has been on the board in every game in which he has appeared since.

LEWIS CATCHING THE GREATS

Heading into his sixth CFL season, Lewis already is catching some of the all-time greats on Calgary's receiving charts. He currently ranks seventh in receptions, seventh in receiving yards and 11th in touchdown catches. With a typical year in 2009, he'll approach top-five territory. His teammates Ken-Yon Rambo and Jeremaine Copeland also are in exclusive company as they climb the charts.

NIK LEWIS — THE MILLENIUM MAN

Stamps slotback Nik Lewis became the first receiver in franchise history to post five consecutive 1,000-yard seasons, against Winnipeg on Oct. 18, 2008. Terry Vaughn and Travis Moore previously shared the club record with Lewis.

REYNOLDS IN FOURTH SPOT

With 131 yards against the BC Lions in Week 4, Stamps RB Joffrey Reynolds moved past Willie Burden into fourth spot on the club's all-time rushing chart. In Week 6, he moved past Lovell Coleman into third spot. Reynolds could be No. 2 by season's end. Here's the leaderboard:

Career rushing yards

8,292	Kelvin Anderson	1996-2002

REYNOLDS vs THE ESKIMOS

The Eskimos historically have been a tough matchup for Reynolds, as he averages 66.1 rushing yards per game and 5.6 yards per carry against them. Here's how he does against every CFL team:

OPPONENT	GP	CAR	YDS	AVG	LG	TD	YDS/G

RAMBO, REYNOLDS LED LEAGUE

For the first time in club history, the Stamps had the league's leading receiver and rusher in the same season. Ken-Yon Rambo and Joffrey Reynolds topped the CFL in receiving and rushing, respectively.

Rambo finished with 1,473 receiving yards on 100 receptions (third in CFL). Hall of Famer Allen Pitts was the last Calgary receiver to lead the league, when he had 97 catches for 1,449 yards in 1999. Here is a look at the complete list of CFL yardage leaders:

YEAR	PLAYER	YDS	REC
2008	Ken-Yon Rambo	1,473	100

CLEANING UP THE PENALTIES

The Stamps set a franchise record for penalty yardage in 2007 and came close to league standards for penalties. This situation improved greatly in 2008, as penalties decreased by 29 per cent and the penalty yardage decreased by 33 per cent. However, 2009 has seen an increase in penalties.

ROAD IMPROVEMENT

The Stamps are coming off a 6-3 road record after back-to-back seasons in which they were 2-7 away from McMahon Stadium. It was only their second season this millenium with a winning road mark. Here are the numbers:

Season	Record
2009	1-1
2008	6-3
2007	2-7
2006	2-7
2005	6-3
2004	1-8
2003	1-8
2002	2-7
2001	4-5

MAKING HAY AT HOME

The Stamps have a 24-8-1 record at McMahon Stadium over their last 33 games. This season, they have lost to Montreal and Saskatchewan, and beat Toronto and Winnipeg. The next home game is Edmonton on Sept. 7. Here is Calgary's yearly home record since 2005:

YEAR	RECORD
2009	2-2
2008	7-2
2007	5-3-1
2006	8-1
2005	5-4

TURNING AROUND THE TURNOVERS

The Stamps had the best turnover ratio in 2008 (tied with BC) at plus-20. This was a complete reversal from 2007 when they had the CFL's worst turnover differential (-20) and the most giveaways (54). In 2008, the Stamps had the fewest giveaways (30) and the second-most takeaways (50). After a slow start to 2009, the Stamps are now up to plus-7. Here's how all CFL teams stacked up:

Through six games in 2008, the Stamps created 10 turnovers (four interceptions, four fumble recoveries and two by downs), well short of this year's total of 22 (8-11-3) through the same number of games.

PLENTY OF FIREPOWER

Led by quarterbacks Henry Burris and Ricky Ray, the Stamps and Eskes boast two of the best passing attacks in the CFL. In fact, Edmonton has three receivers among the league's top eight (in terms of yardage) and the two teams combined have eight of the CFL's top 18 receivers.

WILLIS ON TORRID SACK PACE

Rookie defensive end Odell Willis is trying to become just the second Stamps player to lead the CFL in sacks. He currently tops the league with six sacks through six games. Will Johnson is the only Calgary player to ever lead the league, and he did it twice — in 1994 (17 sacks) and 1991 (15).

The CFL has officially tracked sacks since 1981 and here's a look at every Stamps player who ever finished first or second:

STAMPS FINISHING DRIVES

The Stamps have reached the red-zone more than any CFL team, and they're the second-most adept team at capitalizing on their opportunities. Calgary has been inside the opposing 20-yard line 22 times and scored 15 touchdowns for a 68.2 per cent conversion rate. Here's a look at all CFL teams:

	OPP	TD	PCT
BC	14	10	71.4
Calgary	22	15	68.2
Winnipeg	11	7	63.6
Hamilton	15	9	60.0
Edmonton	18	10	55.5
Saskatchewan	20	11	55.0
Montreal	21	11	52.3
Toronto	13	5	38.5

TAKING ADVANTAGE OF TURNOVERS

The Stamps have scored a league-high 92 points off 22 turnovers this season. Not only has the offence turned turnovers into points, but the defence has also been scoring. Cornerback Dwight Anderson, cornerback Brandon Browner and linebacker Dwaine Carpenter have each found the end-zone. Here's a look at how all CFL teams have capitalized on their turnover opportunities:

	OPP	TD	PTS/OPP
Calgary	22	92	4.2
Saskatchewan	25	76	3.0
BC	18	51	2.8
Winnipeg	23	48	2.1
Montreal	23	46	2.0
Hamilton	16	31	1.9
Toronto	14	20	1.4
Edmonton	7	7	1.0

Of Calgary's 22 turnovers, 11 have resulted in touchdowns, five in field goals and two led to kneeldowns to kill the clock.

STAMPS vs ESKIMOS IN 2008

Calgary 7 0 10 14 31
 Edmonton 7 14 4 9 34
Game 2 • July 3, 2008 • Attendance: 32,706 • Commonwealth Stadium

Despite a valiant comeback attempt, the Calgary Stampeders were dealt their first loss of the 2008 Canadian Football League season. The Stamps trailed the Edmonton Eskimos 21-7 at halftime but scored 14 points in the fourth quarter and held a 31-27 lead with less than a minute remaining at Commonwealth Stadium. But Esks quarterback Ricky Ray hit Jason Tucker for a 36-yard touchdown with 55 seconds remaining for the victory. "We didn't play well in the first half and didn't get things going until it was too late," said Stamps head coach/general manager John Hufnagel. "You have to give credit to the Eskimos and we need to get better. You have to chalk this up as a learning experience and not make the mistakes that we made tonight." Edmonton opened the scoring on its second possession when Ray connected with Kelly Campbell for a 32-yard touchdown. On the final play of the first quarter, Jermaine Copeland caught a 15-yard pass from Henry Burris to even the score. Edmonton scored the next 14 points to make the halftime score 21-7. Out of the break, Burris led Calgary on a 64-yard scoring drive that ended with a three-yard Joffrey Reynolds touchdown run. After an exchange of kicking points, Burris hit a streaking Brett Ralph for a 65-yard touchdown to cut the Eskimos lead to 26-24. Nik Lewis then hauled in a Burris pass and took it to the house for a 20-yard score and Calgary's first lead of the night. But the late charge was foiled by Ray and Tucker.

Game 9 • Sept. 1, 2008 • Attendance: 35,650 • McMahon Stadium

The Calgary Stampeders disappointed a sold-out Labour Day crowd at McMahon Stadium, losing 37-16 to the Edmonton Eskimos.

The defeat dropped the Stamps' Canadian Football League record to 5-4 and allowed Edmonton to improve to 6-3.

Ricky Ray led the Esks with three touchdown passes, including a pair to Fred Stamps.

Edmonton's first possession was an 85-yard scoring drive that was capped by a nine-yard touchdown run by A.J. Harris. Calgary answered right back with a 76-yard drive that ended with a 25-yard field goal by Sandro DeAngelis.

The second quarter highlighted the kickers as DeAngelis kicked two more field goals and Noel Prefontaine added a pair of field goals of his own. A safety gave Edmonton a 12-9 lead at halftime.

Starting Stamps pivot Henry Burris left late in the second quarter with a foot injury. Dave Dickenson replaced Burris and led Calgary on a 75-yard drive to start the second half. The finishing blow was a three-yard touchdown run by Joffrey Reynolds.

But Ray brought the Esks right back into the lead by firing a 24-yard touchdown pass to Kamau Peterson.

Newcomer Nate Curry then fumbled a punt return for Calgary that was recovered by Edmonton and led to a 22-yard touchdown pass Ray to Stamps.

Ray then threw a 25-yard major to Stamps in the fourth quarter to account for the rest of the scoring.

Barrick Nealy replaced Dickenson in the fourth quarter for some playing time but, like his predecessors, had little success.

STAMPS vs ESKIMOS IN 2008

Calgary 10 4 7 17 38
 Edmonton 7 7 6 13 33

Game 10 • Sept. 5, 2008 • Attendance: 46,014 • Commonwealth Stadium

For the seventh time in 10 games, the Calgary Stampeders played a game decided by a touchdown or less. The latest nail-biter was a 38-33 decision over the Edmonton Eskimos at Commonwealth Stadium. The game came down to the final minute and the Stamps secured victory by foiling an Eskimos onside kick attempt.

Calgary's first offensive play was a fumbled shotgun snap that was recovered by Edmonton linebacker Shannon Garrett and returned 25 yards for a touchdown. But the Stamps showed great character and marched 81 yards for a Ryan Thelwell touch-down — Henry Burris' 100th TD toss as a Stamp — on the next possession. With the teams tied 14-14, the first offensive play of the second half also resulted in a defensive touchdown as Stamps linebacker Shannon James intercepted Ricky Ray and raced 27 yards for a score.

The final quarter featured 30 points and Jeremaine Copeland started the fireworks with an eight-yard touchdown pass from Burris. Ray replied with a nine-yard touchdown run but the Stamps answered right back when Ken-Yon Rambo made a fantastic 27-yard touchdown catch to give Calgary a 38-26 lead with less than two minutes remaining.

Edmonton made the Stamps sweat again when Mathieu Bertrand scored a two-yard touchdown run with less than a minute to play but the threat was ended when Calgary recovered the onside kick.

James had a brilliant night with seven defensive tackles, a special-teams tackle, a sack, a forced fumble, a pick and a touchdown. The Stamps recorded a season-high five sacks, with defensive end Mike Labinjo responsible for three.

COMING IN — CALGARY

The Stamps enter the week in a three-way tie for first in the West Division following a 31-23 victory over Winnipeg at McMahon Stadium. The win was Calgary's second at home in 2009, leveling their home record to 2-2. The Stamps now travel to Edmonton and look for their second consecutive road victory after defeating the BC Lions in Vancouver on July 24. The Red and White were 6-3 on the road in 2008 and are 1-1 thus far in 2009.

COMING IN — EDMONTON

The Eskimos also enter Week 7 in a three-way tie for first in the West Division with the Stamps and Saskatchewan Roughriders. Edmonton is coming off of a 28-21 loss to Hamilton at Ivor Wynne Stadium that snapped a two-game winning streak for the team. The Eskis look to rebound at home where they are 2-1 in 2009. They dropped their last contest at Commonwealth, losing 40-22 to the BC Lions in Week 3.

Montreal 17 10 0 13 40
Game 1 • July 1, 2009 • Attendance: 35,650 • McMahon Stadium

The Calgary Stampeders couldn't overcome a poor start or the kicking of Damon Duval in their 2009 season-opener at McMahon Stadium. The Stamps fell into an early 20-0 hole and wound up losing 40-27 to the Montreal Alouettes as the rematch of the 2008 Grey Cup produced a different winner.

Calgary had a late chance to take the lead thanks to a blocked punt by Tristan Black that gave the Stamps the ball at the Montreal 23-yard line. However, a sack of Henry Burris, a fumble and a recovery by Chip Cox led to a game-sealing 81-yard return touchdown. Calgary turned the ball over four times and also committed 10 penalties.

After a poor first quarter that saw Calgary fall behind 17-0, a couple of special plays by the special teams in the second quarter helped get the Stamps back into the contest. First, a spectacular 104-yard kickoff return by rookie Titus Ryan gave the home team its first points of the night.

Then, a blocked punt by Wes Lysack and a recovery by Dwight Anderson gave the Stamps the ball at the Montreal 31. Calgary capitalized with its second touchdown of the game, capping the drive with a four-yard touchdown pass from Burris to Jeremaine Copeland.

Calgary knotted the score at 27-27 with 10 third-quarter points. First, Burris scored a touchdown on a four-yard keeper and Sandro DeAngelis booted a 41-yard field goal to pull Calgary even.

The Alouettes were very sharp from the opening kickoff as they took the first drive 81 yards on five plays for a touchdown. Calvillo and Kerry Watkins connected on a 37-yard strike to complete the sequence. Second time with the ball, the Als doubled their lead as Avon Cobourne ran the ball in from 10 yards.

Game 2 • July 10, 2009 • Attendance: 29,533 • Canad Inns Stadium

Costly turnovers, untimely penalties and, for a good part of the night, an ineffective offence added up the Calgary Stampeders' second straight loss to open the 2009 Canadian Football League season. Four Calgary giveaways led to four Winnipeg touchdowns at Canad Inns Stadium as Calgary dropped a 42-30 decision to the Blue Bombers.

For a second consecutive week, the Stampeders stumbled out of the gate.

The Blue Bombers' Mike Kelly — who collected his first win as a head coach on the night — resorted to some trickery on the game's opening kick-off as he asked Alexis Serna to boot the ball short. The play worked as Winnipeg recovered and that set up a five-play, 39-yard drive for a 24-yard Serna field goal.

After Calgary went two-and-out on its first possession, the Blue Bombers came right back to march the ball 67 yards for a touchdown. The drive was capped by an eight-yard touchdown pass from Stefan LeFors to Terrence Edwards. Winnipeg added a second LeFors-to-Edwards touchdown connection late in the opening half.

The clubs traded short touchdowns runs in the third quarter. First, it was Lavarus Giles running the ball in from the two for the Bombers' third touchdown of the night. The Stamps replied with their first major as Joffrey Reynolds caught a pitch and scored from the one-yard line.

The Stamps tried to mount a comeback with a 99-yard drive that was capped by Henry Burris' one-yard keeper for a touchdown, but the Bombers bounced right back with an interception return for touchdown by Siddeeq Shabazz. Giles' second touchdown run of the game was essentially the icing on the cake for the Bombers. Barrick Nealy, who relieved Burris, led the Red and White on a couple of late touchdown drives to make the final score somewhat more respectable. First, he hooked up with Jeremaine Copeland and then he found Teyo Johnson in the end-zone in the final minute of the game.

STAMPS 2009 GAME SUMMARIES

Calgary 7 6 14 17 44
 Toronto 3 6 0 0 9
Game 3 • July 17, 2009 • Attendance: 33,109 • McMahon Stadium

The Calgary Stampeders defence obviously had enough. After allowing 82 points in the first two games of the season, the Stamps kept the Toronto Argonauts in check and recorded a 44-9 victory Friday at McMahon Stadium. The win was Calgary's first of 2009 and allows the Stampeders to pull into a three-way tie for second place in the West Division with Edmonton and BC. Not only did the defence record six sacks and hold the Argos out of the end-zone, the unit scored three touchdowns — one on Dwaine Carpenter's fumble return and two on interception returns by Dwight Anderson and Brandon Browner. Running back Joffrey Reynolds scored a couple of touchdowns for Calgary — one rushing and one receiving — as the Stampeders extended their home-field winning streak against the Boatmen to four games. For the first time this season, the Stampeders opened the scoring as Reynolds ran the ball in from the one-yard line in the opening quarter. With the touchdown, Reynolds moved past Willie Burden and into fifth place on the Stampeders' all-time list in rushing majors. The two great running backs started the night tied with 32 rushing touchdowns apiece. During the first half, Henry Burris moved past Jeff Garcia (2,358 yards) to become the leading all-time rusher among Stampeders quarterbacks. He also surpassed Hugh McKinnis (2,357) and took over seventh spot on the overall all-time Stamps rushing list. One of the turning points of the night came on the final play of the third quarter. The Argos set up in the Wildcat formation with running back Jamal Robertson taking the snap. Robertson handed the ball to quarterback Kerry Joseph, who was immediately pressured. Carpenter hit Joseph, forced the fumble, recovered the ball and ran it back 55 yards for a touchdown.

In the absence of a couple of key receivers Friday at BC Place, the Calgary Stampeders turned to a couple of familiar faces — and one new face — on the way to recording a 48-10 victory over the BC Lions. With Nik Lewis back in Calgary and Ken-Yon Rambo forced to leave the game in the first quarter, Henry Burris went to veteran Jeremaine Copeland and rookie Jermaine Jackson to float the Stampeders' air attack. Copeland hauled in two touchdown passes and Jackson had one catch for a score. The other big story offensively was Joffrey Reynolds, who rushed for 131 yards and scored two touchdowns as the Stampeders posted a second straight victory to even their season record to 2-2. In the process of having his big night, Reynolds surpassed Willie Burden for fourth place on the Stamps' all-time rushing list. Reynolds now has 6,260 yards compared to 6,234 for Burden. The first-half touchdowns by Copeland and Jackson marked a milestone score for each receiver. For Copeland, it was his 34th career receiving major with the Stampeders, tying him with Gerry Shaw for ninth on the franchise's all-time list. For Jackson, it was the first touchdown of the rookie's CFL career. Early in the third quarter, Burris found Copeland again for a seven-yard passing score. Copeland thought he had a third touchdown later in the quarter but the on-field officials ruled a great diving catch attempt as an incomplete pass and a challenge and video review failed to overturn the call. Undaunted, the Stamps defence continued to dog the Lions. In particular, Odell Willis picked up his fourth and fifth sacks of the season and also recovered a fumble. Meanwhile, Calgary tacked on more points thanks to a pair of touchdowns by Reynolds and a couple of field goals by Sandro DeAngelis.

Game 5 • Aug. 1, 2009 • Attendance: 35,650 • McMahon Stadium

The Calgary Stampeders saw their two-game winning streak come to an end and their share of first place in the Canadian Football League's West Division disappear after dropping a 24-23 decision against the Saskatchewan Roughriders Saturday night at McMahon Stadium.

The loss came in heartbreaking fashion as Riders receiver Chris Getzlaf's second touchdown of the game late in the fourth quarter was the difference as Saskatchewan overcame a six-point deficit to improve to 3-2. The Stamps fall to 2-3 trailing the Riders and Edmonton Eskimos by one game.

The Riders' winning score was set up when Weston Dressler returned a missed 49-yard field goal attempt by Sandro DeAngelis for 55 yards. Two plays later, Durant hit Getzlaf for the long pass-and-run that turned the game around.

The Stampeders took the lead in the fourth quarter when quarterback Henry Burris ran the ball in from 18 yards. The score, which erased Saskatchewan's 17-13 lead, was the 40th rushing touchdown of Burris' career.

Saskatchewan had gone ahead with five minutes remaining in the third quarter when Durant connected with Dressler for a 19-yard touchdown pass.

The Stamps lost despite a second consecutive 100-yard rushing effort by Joffrey Reynolds. The 2008 CFL rushing champion finished the evening 112 yards on 14 carries. It's the 21st time in Reynolds' career he has surpassed the 100-yard mark. Meanwhile, Burris completed 17 of 29 passes for 224 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions.

The Roughriders started the game in fine fashion, gaining 17 yards on a run by Wes Cates. Five plays later, Durant hit Getzlaf with a pass and a nine-yard touchdown. After struggling on their first two possessions, the Stampeders got things going the third time they had the ball as they went 89 yards in five plays to pick up the game-tying touchdown. The march was capped by a 10-yard scoring pass from Burris to Jon Cornish.

With a 31-23 victory over the Winnipeg Blue Bombers on Saturday at McMahon Stadium, the Stampeders created a three-way tie for first place in the West Division. Calgary built a 23-3 halftime lead and survived a strong second-half performance by Winnipeg running back Fred Reid — who finished the night with 167 rushing yards and two touchdowns — to hang on for the victory. Wes Lysack's interception in the dying moments sealed the outcome.

The Stampeders, Edmonton Eskimos and Saskatchewan Roughriders are all 3-3 after six weeks of action while the BC Lions aren't too far behind at 2-4.

In avenging a Week 2 loss to Winnipeg, the Stampeders offence put up points early and often, scoring two field goals and a touchdown on their first three possessions of the night. The major was provided by Joffrey Reynolds, who carried the ball in from two yards out.

The Bombers on the board with a 54-yard field goal, but the Stamps got those points back and more when Reynolds scored his second touchdown of the night. This time, it was a receiving major as he caught a pass and lunged into the endzone for a 17-yard score.

Winnipeg got its offence going on the first drive of the second half as the Bombers went 86 yards on eight plays, with Reid capping the march with an eight-yard touchdown run.

Winnipeg added a field goal to further reduce the Stampeders' advantage, but a fumble by Blue Bombers quarterback Michael Bishop, which was recovered by Dwaine Carpenter, set up a 36-yard touchdown pass from Burris to Titus Ryan. Reid scored the only touchdown of the fourth quarter, capping a Winnipeg drive with a one-yard run for his second score of the contest.

CAREER

Pro path

Calgary signed Johnson as a free agent in June of 2008. He was drafted by the Oakland Raiders in the second round (63rd overall) of the 2003 NFL draft. He was signed by the Arizona Cardinals in 2005. He went to training camp with the Miami Dolphins in 2006 and then went to the Denver Broncos camp in 2007. He signed with Buffalo on Jan. 29, 2008.

2008

In his first season in the CFL, Johnson established himself as a versatile player for the Red and White. Johnson started 13 regular-season games at fullback, but was utilized mostly as an H-back/tight end. He had his best game of the season against Montreal on Sept. 12 when he had four catches for 89 yards (22.3 per catch average) and his first CFL touchdown. The major came on a last-second 53-yard Hail Mary pass from Henry Burris going into halftime. Johnson had the second-highest receiving average (16.5 yards per grab) on the team for the season. He converted 80 per cent of his receptions into a touchdown or first down, the highest percentage on the team. He started in both the West Final and Grey Cup.

2007

Johnson was in camp with the Denver Broncos.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- * Started at fullback in the Stampeders 2008 Grey Cup win
- * Dressed for first CFL game on July 10 at Montreal and caught his first CFL pass, a 21-yard throw from Henry Burris
- * Dressed and started in first CFL post-season game on Nov. 15 against the BC Lions
- * Caught his first CFL touchdown—a 53-yard Hail Mary from Henry Burris—against Montreal on Sept. 12, 2008
- * First NFL reception was a nine-yard pass from Rich Gannon against the Cincinnati Bengals on Sept. 14, 2003
- * Caught his first NFL touchdown against Cleveland on Oct. 12, 2003
- * Has played in 30 NFL games with 26 catches for 288 yards and three touchdowns

COLLEGE

Johnson played two seasons (2001, 2002) for Stanford University. In 23 games for the Cardinal, he totaled 79 catches for 1,032 yards and 15 touchdowns. The 15 career touchdowns ranks him 10th all-time in Stanford football history.

NOTABLE

Johnson played both basketball and football during his stay at Stanford. He has two brothers who have played football. Ahmani played at Oregon State and Riall played at Stanford. Riall is currently a member of the Winnipeg Blue Bombers. An interview with Teyo Johnson was featured during sequences of the 2005 version of the popular NFL Madden video game.
